Jubilee 20-14-

Celebrating 1710 Combined Years of Service to the People of God!

September 2014

Dear Friends,

As summer turns to fall, nature reminds us of the generosity and provision of God with the splendor of changing colors and the bountiful harvest reaped from gardens and fields. Know that you, our friends and partners, are also a reminder of God's generosity. Because of you, we are able to continue our ministries of service to the people of God, our legacy as Sisters of Charity. On behalf of all of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill, I wish you peace and joy in the last warm days of the summer.

The stories in this issue of Celebration tell how five of our sisters have lived and continue to live our legacy of service. This issue also serves as our donor report, an opportunity to thank you for your faithful support of our ministries and our senior sisters. We have included pictures of the new beds, lift chairs, and the new van you helped to provide for the sisters at Caritas Christi last year. We are very grateful. Like the Sisters of Charity, you are compelled to care, compelled to serve, and through your works, prayers, and gifts, you are co-laborers with us in the work of Charity.

In the weeks and months to come, we will share news of our General Chapter, held last month in Korea, and introduce you to the new General Council that was elected at that meeting of delegates of the Korean and United States Provinces of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill. Visit us often at our website, www.scs.org, for more information on this event and the many happenings that will take place in the coming year.

We thank you for your constant friendship in our lives. Please know that you are always welcome to visit us at our motherhouse, Caritas Christi, especially during this coming liturgical year that has been designated by the Holy Father as the Year of Consecrated Life. Know that each day you are remembered in our prayers. Please let us know of your special needs so we may carry them in prayer throughout our days.

God bless you,

Sister Catherine Meinert, S.C.

Celebrating Sister Jean Boggs

Sometimes there's a twinkle in her eye, a spark that translates into hearty laughter. At other times, a thoughtful look reveals a quick mind processing ideas and information and putting it all together. Then comes a pensive silence, an almost blank look, waiting for the next question to frame itself in her mind.

Sister Jean and Carmen Rivera-Bauza

Sister Jean Boggs, a Sister of Charity for nearly 55 years, still flourishes after a lifetime of service. Math major in college. An artist and art historian trained in Florence, Italy. A teacher of students from grade school through post graduate work. A minister at Seton Hill University for over twenty-five years—as faculty member, Admissions Director, and Development Office coordinator of the Annual Fund and assistant in Capital Campaign efforts. For this dedication to the University, Sister Jean was honored with the Distinguished Alumna Leadership Award on June 7, 2014.

Last year at this event, another Seton Hill alumna was recognized: Carmen Rivera-Bauza. When Carmen was honored, she recognized Sister Jean. "Without you, Sister Jean, I would not be here." Sister Jean had recruited Carmen in Puerto Rico and had employed her in the college Admissions Office. She took a personal interest in Carmen's academic life, supporting and encouraging her on the road to graduation and subsequent success.

Sister Jean is a thoughtful and inventive woman. That has been true of her in every ministry in which she served. In her mind, there must be a better way to present a mathematical principle to a struggling student; reach more applicants for Seton Hill University; interest a foundation in supporting a needed project; help a needy parishioner procure medical treatment; connect friends and benefactors of the sisters with one another. Her creativity, once sparked, can explode with exuberance. And her experience helps harness the ideas to make them workable and successful.

Today, Sister Jean might be found in a sister's room at Caritas Christi, helping to explain and adjust a telephone or a computer connection. She's an official "trouble shooter" for technology issues on the motherhouse complex. In addition, she makes house calls to convents in the Greensburg and Pittsburgh areas to perform the same role. If a sister can't get connected to the internet, call Sister Jean. If someone's caught an internet virus, call her for an antidote. It is not unusual to find Sister Jean crawling under a desk in the midst of a tangle of cords and connections. Or patiently helping adjust the sound level or size of print for those with senses that don't provide the clarity they used to. She thrives in trying to figure it all out.

This multi-faceted woman cultivates everything. She takes great pride in the zinnias in her garden, and in the tomatoes and herbs she grows. She tends to relationships, providing ways to bring people together and ways to lend her support in times of need. She remembers friends, both personal and professional, and is at ease with the simplest as well as the most sophisticated. As one long-time friend and benefactor of the Sisters of Charity said, "Who could say 'no' to Sister Jean?"

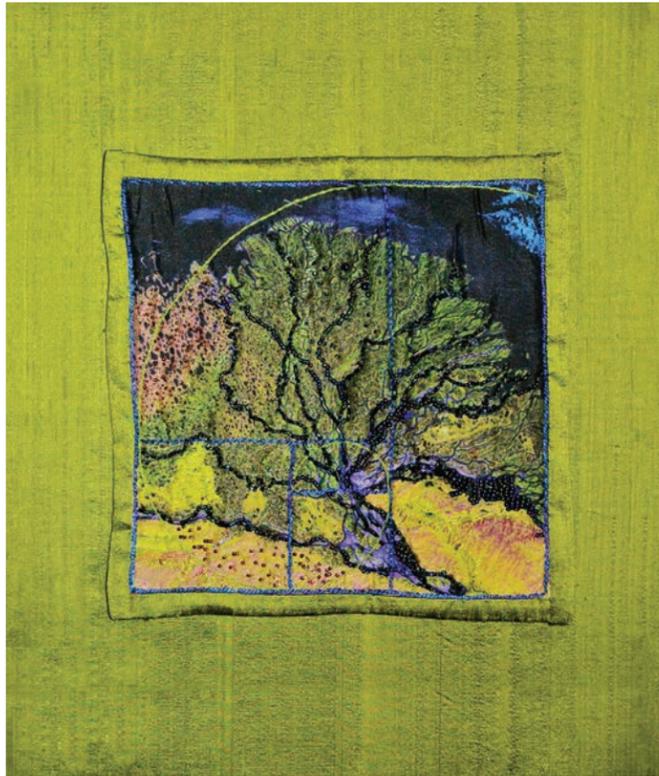

Sister Jean has found much joy in her religious life. "Living and working side by side with talented and committed women who continue to pursue learning in order to give in service to others—to meet the needs of the Church in many areas of the world is rewarding," said Sister Jean on the occasion of her Golden Jubilee. Nothing makes Sister Jean happier than making life better for others. The Vincentian tradition, the model of service selected by Elizabeth Ann Seton for her Sisters of Charity, compels Sister Jean to use every talent and resource at her disposal to confront the boundless challenges of charity. Consequently, her love for her community, her infectious zeal, and her boundless generosity have inspired many friends she has blessed in her 55 years of ministry to "pay it forward." These "beneficiaries turned benefactors" have paid the greatest tribute to Sister Jean in choosing to become co-laborers with the Sisters of Charity to make the love of God visible in the world through their works, prayers, and gifts.

Celebrating Golden Jubilee 20-14

This original artwork of Golden Jubilarian Sister Mary Joan Hopper was used on the worship aid cover and prayer cards for the 2014 Jubilee Celebration. The image is from a NASA photograph of the Lena River Delta. The original photograph, used with permission from NASA, was adjusted digitally and printed to silk. The resulting fiber image was then stitched with cotton, rayon, metallic, and silk threads; embellished with glass and copper beads; and mounted on Dupioni silk.

We reverence the dignity of each person and of all creation." This mandate of the Constitutions of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill beautifully describes the religious lives of Sisters Edith Strong, Mary Joan Hopper, Barbara Einloth, and Kathleen Gallagher, who entered the congregation on September 8, 1964. Through education, social service, healthcare, and pastoral ministries, these women of the Church have used their gifts and talents to serve the people of God for 50 years. The Golden Jubilarians celebrated this milestone anniversary with a Mass of Thanksgiving that included a renewal of vows on July 13, 2014, at Our Lady of Grace Church, Greensburg.

"Religious life as a Sister of Charity is the right vocation for me. In hindsight, I wouldn't want it any other way," reflected Sister Edith "Edie" Strong. She entered the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill from Saint Bernadette Parish, Monroeville, Pennsylvania. In the 50 years that followed, Sister Edie found within her community "an expansive compassion for the poor, a zeal for participating in the mission of Jesus, and a confidence that, with our lives engulfed by the Holy Spirit, immeasurable good can be done in response to the people whose needs cry out to God."

After receiving a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Seton Hill University, Sister Edie's early ministry assignments were at Saint Anselm Catholic Grade School and Elizabeth Seton High School, both in Pittsburgh. Her teaching career continued at her alma mater, Seton Hill University, where she taught math and computer science for ten years. During her tenure at Seton Hill, she earned a master's degree in mathematics from the University of Wisconsin. Then in 1982, Sister Edie began a ten-year ministry at Seton Child Care Services, Inc. She served first as administrative assistant and later as executive director of the organization, which provided support services to families with young children in Westmoreland County.

Sister Edie's career path took a different direction in 1993 when she began social work studies at the University of West Virginia. After earning a master's degree in social work in 1995, she ministered in West Virginia as a mental health therapist at Seneca Mental Health Services, Inc., while also volunteering her services at her local parish. In 2002, Sister Edie was elected to the United States Provincial Council of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill. During her five-year term in office, Sister Edie was active in raising awareness on social justice and environmental issues.

Since 2007, Sister Edie has ministered as a medical social worker with Medi Home Hospice, Inc., Scottsdale, Pennsylvania. As a member of the treatment team for hospice patients, she provides emotional support to patients and their families and facilitates difficult end-of-life preparations such as the completion of a living will, choosing a power-of-attorney, and pre-planning funeral arrangements. In addition, she helps with placement of patients and refers families for community resources. "I most enjoy visiting my patients. My goal is to offer an experience of God's presence with them, an opportunity to find joy in the moment, an opportunity to realize the deeper meaning of their life, and, if they choose, an opportunity to talk about their faith and the end of life," explained Sister Edith.

Sister Edie touched countless lives through many volunteer ministries. Most notably, Sister Edie has facilitated chapel services at the State Correctional Institution, Greensburg; coordinated religious ministry at Westmoreland County Detention Center, Greensburg; served as the president of Economic Housing in Webster County, West Virginia; coordinated Webster County Work Camp in West Virginia; and taught adult religious education at Saint Bruno Parish, Greensburg. Throughout her religious life, she has received numerous honors; however, the recognition Sister Edie prizes most came as a thank-you note written on the back of an envelope from a newly released prisoner who had few possessions, a long wait for a bus, and nothing to eat. His note was one of gratitude for a super-sized burger meal Sister Edie provided for him upon his release. The thrust of her vocation as a Sister of Charity of Seton Hill can be summed up with a memory Sister Edie shared. "When Pope John Paul II visited the United States, I asked a prisoner if he had seen any of the media coverage of his welcome here. His response to me was simple, but life-changing: 'No, that doesn't much matter to me. You are the one who comes to see me.'"

Sister Mary Joan Hopper's call to religious life was influenced by the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill who taught her. She entered the congregation from Sacred Heart Parish, Pittsburgh. "I was fortunate to have some amazingly forward-thinking, creative teachers. They told us about the accomplishments of the Sisters of Charity—like building a college, starting an art department, writing music, and missions in the west," recalled Sister Mary Joan. "They were reaching out in the world and I thought that being part of that would be so exciting! It has been and still is!" she acknowledged.

Sister Mary Joan has been a dedicated teacher for 46 years. She is a member Kappa Delta Pi, an International Honor Society in Education; a recipient of the Diocese of Pittsburgh Golden Apple Award, given in recognition of outstanding teaching ability and commitment to Catholic education; a featured teacher in the Diocese of Pittsburgh Superintendent's Report; and winner of the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science Leadership Training Scholarship. Currently, Sister Mary Joan teaches art to students in grades K–8 at East Catholic School, Forest Hills, Pennsylvania. An art teacher since 1980, she stays current with ever-changing technology in order to provide a quality educational experience for her students. "I have always enjoyed working with children," commented Sister Mary Joan. "They can do amazing art when taught and encouraged to develop their imagination and creativity." Having earned a bachelor's degree in English with a minor in art at Seton Hill University, a diploma in digital design from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, and a master's degree in art education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Sister has also taught mathematics, science, religion, reading, and language arts.

Her passion for art has been an integral part of Sister Mary Joan's life, both personal and professional. Using her photography skills, she combines traditional art media with digital design and fiber art. Sister has used her talents and experience in volunteer ministries that include teaching CCD in the Diocese of Greensburg, teaching at summer art camps, and visiting teens at a juvenile correction facility. In 2006, Sister Mary Joan was instrumental in the establishment of the Seton Arts Service Corps program. She served as assistant director of this collaborative venture of the Sisters of Charity and Seton Hill University. The program brings together children living in underserved communities with fine arts scholars from Seton Hill University; the scholars encourage the children to express themselves through music, art and drama. Throughout her religious life, Sister Mary Joan has always been willing to lend her creativity for the benefit of the congregation through service on various community committees.

"At age 17, I had no idea just how rich my experience as a woman religious would be," said Sister Barbara Einloth in reflection on her religious life. "Through a life in community, one firmly set within the Church and focused on God's deepest desires, my spiritual life has been nourished, deepened, and challenged to grow."

Sister Barbara entered the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill from her home parish, Saint Canice (now Saint John Vianney), Pittsburgh. The Sisters of Charity who taught her at Elizabeth Seton High School and the late Bishop Anthony G. Bosco influenced her vocation choice. Today, Sister Barbara serves on the United States Provincial Council of the Sisters of Charity, giving particular attention to direction on issues of mission integration, ministry, and social justice. With the other councilors, Sister Barbara embraces the challenge of balancing the mission of the congregation with caring for the growing population of senior sisters. She leads the Guadalupe Conference of the congregation, which consists of the Sisters of Charity who live at a distance from the motherhouse.

Throughout her religious life, Sister Barbara sought to build the Kingdom of God by serving her community and ministering in parishes and schools. Her early ministry years were spent teaching at Saint Jane de Chantal School in Bethesda, Maryland, as well as schools of the Diocese of Pittsburgh that include Saint Mary Magdalene, Saint Stephen, Mon Valley Catholic, Elizabeth Seton and Seton-LaSalle High Schools. She also taught adult religious education at Saint Mary of the Mount Parish, Pittsburgh. While serving as Consultant for Adult Catechesis and the Associate Director for Religious Education for the Diocese of Greensburg, Sister Barbara promoted faith formation for parish catechists and Catholic school teachers for seven years. From 1990 to 1992, Sister Barbara served in Arizona as a full-time faculty member of Kino Institute, the center for ministry formation and biblical studies serving the Diocese of Phoenix. In that role she taught theology courses in the School of Ministry and traveled to parishes around the diocese offering 12-hour adult education sessions addressing faith, Church and Scripture topics. She then went on to minister at Saint Michael Parish, Olympia, Washington, where in addition to her numerous pastoral responsibilities, she served as an advocate in the parish for the Marriage Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Seattle for a period of five years. In 1997, Sister Barbara returned to Greensburg, where she served the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill as secretary of the congregation for five years.

Sister Barbara's longest tenure in pastoral ministry was at Saint Mary Parish, Hudson, Ohio. There she established JustFAITH and JusticeWALKING, which promote justice education and formation in the Catholic tradition for adults and teens. The programs increased and broadened participation in both advocacy and direct service within the parish. She was named Woman of the Year for Saint Mary Parish by the Summit Regional Council of Catholic Women in Akron in 2010. Sister Barbara served nine years at Saint Mary Parish before assuming her current role as provincial councilor for the congregation in 2012. "Ministry has put me in touch with wonderful Catholics eager to grow in faith, understanding, and commitment," related Sister Barbara.

Sister Barbara holds a bachelor's degree in English with a minor in French from Seton Hill University, a master's degree in theology from Fordham University, and a certificate in theological studies from the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley. She has generously used her gifts to serve the province and congregation at large through vocation work as a young sister; writing for the sisters' publication, Celebration; and through membership on various committees including vocation, formation, and steering committees. She participated with sisters from the United States and Korea in the inaugural Interprovincial Experience of Charism and Mission in Chicago and Ecuador in 2010. In addition, Sister Barbara joined 50 members of the Vincentian family from around the world in Paris for the inaugural Vincentian Family Collaborative Action Project in May 2013. Of her multifaceted experiences of the past 50 years, Sister Barbara marveled, "I am grateful to God for all the aids, opportunities, and surprises offered to me as a Sister of Charity."

Known to most as "Sister Katie," Sister Kathleen Gallagher entered the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill from Holy Innocents Parish, Pittsburgh. "Living in the life-giving community of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill and ministering as a nurse has been a gift, always calling me to live in the presence of God," Sister Katie reflected. "In this ministry, I have had the opportunity of seeing, listening, and touching the Face of God. I love my life."

Currently, Sister Katie serves as the Program Director/Nurse at Elizabeth Seton Adult Day Care at the Monahan Center, Greensburg, where she enjoys interacting with her clients and their families. In addition to evaluating client status and overseeing care, Sister Kathleen conducts admission interviews, supervises employees and volunteers, and ensures that service standards comply with objectives defined by the Pennsylvania State Agency on Aging. Sister Katie is honored to assist in maintaining quality of life for those she serves.

Prior to her ministry at the Seton Center Adult Day Care Center, Sister Katie's 45-year nursing career included service at Green Meadows (now known as Emeritus) of Latrobe; Saint Anne Home, Greensburg; Rendu Services, Fayette County; Caritas Christi, motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill, Greensburg; and Assumption Hall, the sisters' former infirmary and retirement home, Greensburg. Pittsburgh area facilities where she served include Divine Providence Hospital, Pittsburgh Hospital/Forbes System, Roselia Foundling and Maternity Hospital, and Saint Francis Hospital. She earned a Licensed Practical Nurse Diploma from Saint Francis Hospital, a Registered Nurse Diploma from West Penn Hospital School of Nursing, a Pastoral Associate Certificate from Mercy Hospital, and a Certificate in Gerontology from La Roche College, all in Pittsburgh.

A vibrant member of her community, Sister Katie has served as a member of the Sisters of Charity Network for Lifelong Learning. She enjoys community gatherings, spiritual reading and meditation, football, and most of all, music, which brings great joy to Sister Katie's life. She serves as a cantor and sings with the Sisters of Charity Community Choir. "Sharing music gives me the opportunity to reflect my love of life and the beauty that surrounds me," explained Sister Katie. "I believe joy is the most infallible sign of the presence of God."

Music is a gift Sister Katie shares with her family members who, according to Sister Katie, "have reflected a deep, simple, and loving faith in God, through good times and bad." Her family and the Sisters of Charity who taught her influenced Sister Katie's vocation. "Entering the Sisters of Charity has deepened that [family] faith and my relationship with God. I believe that God is always with me, a presence of love and care," Sister Katie related. "This belief helps me to remain faithful."

Donor List

Thanks to the generosity of friends, benefactors, and charitable foundations, we were able to purchase a new van to transport sisters who use wheelchairs.

Sister Catherine Meinert and Ron Berlingo, Administrator of Caritas Christi, accept delivery of the new van.

Roger Shank, who drives the sisters to medical and dental appointments, shows Ron Berlingo how to operate the wheelchair lift on the new van.

We value our close relationship with our lay friends who provide a strong support for the ministries of the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill. Many of our friends are volunteers. Many more provide financial gifts that help us to pay the bills. Some even make provisions in their wills in order to ensure continual support for God's work. All of our friends are dear to us and we pray for them daily.

Our donor list is divided into the following giving categories:

The Circle of Charity

Members of the Circle of Charity provide annual pledges or one-time gifts of $300 or more. Silver and Gold Circle of Charity members make annual contributions of over $600 and $1,200 respectively. Platinum Circle of Charity members have made annual pledges or gifts of $5,000 or more. Many of the pledges are recurring, meaning that monthly giving occurs with no end date. This saves the sisters money in substantially lower administrative costs.

The Friends of Charity

The Friends of Charity represent our largest group of donors. With annual gifts between $1 and $299, they collectively make a huge impact in the support of our ministries. Every donation is received with thanksgiving and prayer on the donor's behalf.

Partners

Partners are donors whose lifetime giving has exceeded $5,000. We honor them for their faithfulness and their commitment to our ministries. Partners have responded to the invitation to stand with the Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill in mission.

We present this donor listing of gifts received from July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014. We express our gratitude to God and to you for the generosity shown to us.

Last July, over 50 children attended the Seton Arts Service Corps summer camp at Caritas Christi. This ministry, under the direction of Sister Kathleen McGrady, is an opportunity for Seton Hill University scholars to provide a creative environment for grade school children to develop self-expression through music, art, and drama.

Thanks to your generosity, lift chairs were delivered to Caritas Christi in early August. These chairs make rising easier and safer for sisters who have mobility issues.

Sister Francis Louise Honeychuck learns how to use the control for her new lift chair.

Sister Agnes has big news!

Sister Agnes Steedle is a sister in demand at DePaul Center, the administrative offices of the Sisters of Charity. Many of our friends and benefactors faithfully support Sister Agnes' fundraisers—the sale of Enjoy coupon books (available September 1 through January 15) and her raffle tickets that include: Lucky March Raffle (available in January and drawn in March), Summer Fun Raffle (available in April and drawn in June), Back-to-School Cash Raffle (available in July and drawn in September) and Holiday Cash Raffle (available in October and drawn in December). Proceeds from these fundraisers benefit the Sisters of Charity.

Her seasonal raffle tickets have become so popular that Sister Agnes has decided that for the 2014 Holiday Cash Raffle, she will sell two different tickets—one ticket based on the noon Pennsylvania Daily Number and another ticket based on the 7:00 p.m. Daily Number.

Call Sister Agnes at 724-836-0406, ext. 646, to order your Enjoy 2015 coupon book and to reserve your Holiday Cash raffle tickets, either for the noon or 7:00 p.m. raffle drawing. Order tickets for each raffle and double your chances to win!

Thanks to a grant from the National Religious Retirement Office, which is supported by the generosity of Catholics throughout the United States, much needed renovations were completed at Doran Hall. The former novitiate house currently serves as a residence for sisters. Workman Gary Pilkington carefully assesses the installation of mirrors during the renovation work. The finished result is a credit to his workmanship.

Ministry of Prayer Offers the Perfect Gift for Everyone!

Are you looking for a gift for the person who seems to have everything? Perhaps you need to find the perfect gift for someone with many needs. A gift of prayer always fits! The Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Guild, directed by Sister Miriam Richard Soisson, is a spiritual ministry that supports others in prayer. An enrollment in the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Guild is a wonderful gift option for any person on any occasion.

The Guild offers get well, birthday, sympathy, thank you, and all occasion cards to announce spiritual gifts of enrollment. A beautiful Christmas card for Guild enrollments will soon be available. Members of the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Guild receive the following benefits:

- Mass is celebrated monthly for members of the Guild;
- Novenas are offered in August and November of each year;
- Prayers are offered daily by the Sisters of Charity for members of the Guild.

Knowing that one is the recipient of prayer is a comfort, especially in times of need. All are welcome to enroll family, friends, relatives, or benefactors in the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Guild. Enrollment offerings are $3.00 for one year and $10.00 for perpetual memberships.

To arrange for a Guild enrollment by phone, please call 724-853-7948, ext. 120. You may also request Guild enrollment cards by email at webadmin@sesh.org. An Elizabeth Ann Seton Guild membership will make a perfect gift for the special people in your life!
